Counter motions and election proposals from shareholders that are to be made accessible are published on the Company's website at www.first-sensor.com in the "Investor Relations" section under "Annual General Meeting". You can support a counter motion aimed exclusively at rejecting a proposed resolution by voting against the management proposal. In the absence of express instructions, the proxy of the Company cannot vote on more far-reaching motions, such as substantive counter motions or procedural motions. In this case, the proxy of the Company will abstain from voting.

Please note the further instructions in the invitation to the Annual General Meeting.

3
