

Supervisory Board

Aline Sellien, Assistant General Counsel Labor and Employment Law EMEA - Corporate Legal, TE Connectivity Germany GmbH, Bensheim, Germany

After studying law at the Johannes Gutenberg University in Mainz and completing two state examinations in Rhineland-Palatinate, Aline Sellien initially worked as a lawyer at the international law firm Shearman & Sterling in the field of employment law. In 2007, Aline Sellien qualified as a specialist lawyer for employment law. She then moved to First Data Deutschland GmbH in 2008, initially as Counsel and from 2012 as Senior Counsel, where she was responsible for all employment law matters in the EMEA region. In 2018, Aline Sellien then moved to TE Connectivity Germany GmbH and has been Assistant General Counsel Labor & Employment EMEA ever since.

Professional stations:

2018	Assistant General Counsel Labor & Employment Law EMEA, In-house lawyer, TE Connectivity Germany GmbH, Bensheim, Germany
2012	Senior Counsel Labor & Employment Law EMEA, In-house lawyer, First Data Deutschland GmbH, Bad Vilbel, Germany
2008	Counsel Labor & Employment Law EMEA, In-house lawyer, First Data Deutschland GmbH, Bad Vilbel, Germany
2007	Specialist lawyer in labor law, Shearman & Sterling LLP, Mannheim, Germany
2002	Lawyer specializing in employment law, Shearman & Sterling LLP, Mannheim, Germany
2001	LL.M. in Comparative Law for International Lawyers, San Diego, U.S.
2000	Law clerk, Johannes von Gutenberg University, Mainz, and legal clerkship in Rhineland-Palatinate, Germany

Current mandates in supervisory and advisory boards

- none